The Annual Political Dialogue is in just a few weeks!

The event gathers stakeholders from all EU coal+ regions to discuss progress and challenges in implementing a just transition. The programme features high-level speakers and sessions on different facets of the energy transition, such as district heating systems, industrial development, and training and education opportunities for workers. Check out the detailed agenda for more information.

Discover Velenje

For this year's Annual Political Dialogue from 11-12 July, the city of Velenje in Slovenia is hosting coal+ stakeholders from the EU and beyond. What lessons does local transition in the region hold for other coal, peat, lignite and oil shale regions undergoing an energy transition? Three site visits during the event will offer valuable insights. Register now to join the site visits!
