[Reminder] Register for the SRI Platform meeting!

The second edition of the SRI Platform plenary session is coming near. It will take place as an online meeting on  November 23rd from  9h30-12h00 CET, joining stakeholders to discuss technical, regulatory and implementation aspects of the SRI.

The SRI support team has received over 230 registrations up until now, showing a lot of interest from stakeholders from a variety of smart buildings related industry, services, research, educational and governmental organisations. But there still is room for more, so don't miss out on this opportunity. If you want to get updated on the status of Member States SRI testing and implementation, EU policy and findings from the SRI Platform working groups, join the SRI Platform plenary meeting and  register now!

More information - including the complete agenda - can be found in the previous edition of our Newsletter.

We hope to welcome you to this event!
